

A solidarity concert for children affected by tuberculosis

MUSIC TO STOP TB

25 March 2007 – 16:00 hrs

Queen's Hall, Black Diamond – Copenhagen

Leif Ove Andsnes, piano

Elsebeth Dreisig, soprano

Niels Jørgen Riis, tenor

Vincenzo Taormina, baritone

James Vaughan, piano

Works by Sibelius, Liszt, Mompou, Chopin, and arias from Puccini's Boheme and Verdi's Traviata. Artistic direction by Giancarlo Andretta.

The artists are donating their performances to raise money to repair and reopen the children's TB hospital in Dushanbe, Tajikistan.

Tickets available from www.billetnet.dk

The event is held by WHO, Regional Office for Europe in association with the Stop TB Partnership, and the Danish Lung Association. Generous support is provided by the Embassy of Italy in Denmark and Countess Cath Danneskiold-Samsøe. In addition, contributions have been made by Alitalia, Alfa Romeo Denmark, Ansaldo, Copenhagen Post and Hotel Skt Petri in Copenhagen, Denmark. The participation of Vincenzo Taormina was made possible by kind permission of Teatro la Fenice, Venice, Italy.

www.euro.who.int/musictostoptb